

Kennametal Honored With Delphi's 2010 Pinnacle Award

May 18, 2011

LATROBE, Pa., May 18, 2011 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ --

Kennametal Inc. (NYSE: KMT) announced today that it has received Delphi's 2010 Pinnacle Award for Supplier Excellence. The award, established in 2004, recognizes Delphi's top suppliers for their contribution to Delphi's Excellence culture. The Award also provides annual recognition to a premier group of Delphi suppliers for their commitment to and achievement of Quality, Value, and Cost performance.

The 2010 Pinnacle Award for Supplier Excellence winners met or exceeded Delphi's quality, delivery, service and competitive costs expectations.

"This award recognizes Kennametal's dedication to excellence," said Sid Johnson, vice president, Delphi Global Supply Management.

"Congratulations to your team, many of whom are working diligently at your facilities. Please extend our appreciation to them for their efforts."

"Delivering the promise to our customers in order to make them more productive every day is a top priority," commented Dr. Kemal Yegenoglu, Kennametal Vice President Global Transportation Business. "We are extremely proud to be recognized by Delphi for excellence for the past three years and consider this award a reflection of our commitment to customer loyalty and satisfaction."

This year Delphi recognized 16 suppliers from seven countries with its 2010 Pinnacle Award for Supplier Excellence.
