

Kennametal Inc. Chief Executive Officer Comments on Outlook

June 4, 2003

LATROBE, Pa., June 4 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Kennametal Inc. (NYSE: KMT) announces that its Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, Markos I. Tambakeras, will affirm the Company's previously stated guidance range today at the McDonald Investments 2003 Industrial & Automotive Conference. As stated in a prior release, the range for the fourth quarter of fiscal 2003 is for reported diluted earnings per share of $0.17 to $0.37, including an estimate for special charges associated with the Widia integration and restructuring programs of approximately $0.06 to $0.21 per share. Excluding these charges, diluted earnings per share are forecasted to range from $0.38 to $0.43 per share. The earnings forecast also includes $0.02 of dilution from Widia and a reduction in diluted EPS for the fiscal year of $0.17 per share, or approximately $0.04 per share per quarter, from a reduction in pension income.

This release contains "forward-looking" statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. You can identify these forward-looking statements by the fact they use words such as "should," "anticipate," "estimate," "approximate," "expect," "may," "will," "project," "intend," "plan," "believe," and others words of similar meaning and expression in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance. One can also identify forward-looking statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. These statements are likely to relate to, among other things, our goals, plans and projections regarding our financial position, results of operations, market position and product development, which are based on current expectations that involve inherent risks and uncertainties, including factors that could delay, divert or change any of them in the next several years. Although it is not possible to predict or identify all factors, they may include the following: global economic conditions; future terrorist attacks; epidemics; risks associated with integrating and divesting businesses and achieving the expected savings and synergies; demands on management resources; risks associated with international markets such as currency exchange rates, and social and political environments; competition; labor relations; commodity prices; demand for and market acceptance of new and existing products; and risks associated with the implementation of restructuring plans and environmental remediation matters. We can give no assurance that any goal or plan set forth in forward- looking statements can be achieved and readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on such statements, which speak only as of the date made. We undertake no obligation to release publicly any revisions to forward-looking statements as a result of future events or developments.
