Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 27, 2015, the Board of Directors of Kennametal Inc. (the “Company”) announced the retirement of William R. Newlin as Chairman of the Board of the Company, due to the mandatory retirement age as set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines. Mr. Newlin was appointed as Chairman of the Board on November 17, 2014 and previously served as Lead Director of the Company since October 2012. Pursuant to this retirement, the Board of Directors has appointed Lawrence W. Stranghoener as Chairman of the Board of the Company to take effect October 27, 2015. Mr. Stranghoener is the retired Executive Vice President, Strategy and Business Development of the Mosaic Company (a crop nutrition company), a position he held from August 30, 2014 until his retirement in January 2015. Mr. Stranghoener previously served as Interim Chief Executive Officer of that company from June 1, 2014 through August 30, 2014, and prior to that served as the company’s Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, a position he held from September 2004 until June 2014. Before joining Mosaic, Mr. Stranghoener was the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans (a Fortune 500 financial services company) from 2001 to 2004. Prior to that, Mr. Stranghoener spent 17 years at Honeywell Inc. where he served in a variety of positions in the U.S. and in Europe, including three years as Chief Financial Officer until Honeywell merged with Allied Signal Inc. in 1999. Mr. Stranghoener started his career as an Investment Analyst at Dain Rauscher. Mr. Stranghoener serves on the board of directors of Aleris International, where he chairs the audit committee, and he also serves on the board of trustees for Goldman Sachs Closed End Funds and Exchange Traded Funds. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. Olaf College and a master of business administration degree from Northwestern University.

Kennametal Names New Chairman of the Board; Newlin Retires

LATROBE, Pa., October 27, 2015 - Kennametal Inc. (NYSE: KMT) announced today that its board of directors elected Mr. Lawrence Stranghoener as chairman of the board effective October 27, 2015.

Mr. Stranghoener has served on Kennametal's board of directors since 2003. He is the retired executive vice president and chief financial officer for the Mosaic Company, where he also served as interim chief executive officer. Before joining Mosaic, Stranghoener was executive vice president and chief financial officer for Thrivent Financial and spent 17 years at Honeywell Inc. in a variety of positions including chief financial officer.

In addition, Stranghoener is a board member of Aleris Corporation where he chairs the audit committee and also serves on the board of trustees for Goldman Sachs Closed End Funds and Exchange Traded Funds. He holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from St. Olaf College and an MBA in finance and accounting from Northwestern University's Kellogg School.

Mr. Stranghoener replaces Mr. Newlin who is retiring due to the mandatory retirement age for board members. Newlin joined the board in 1982 and has served 33 years on the Kennametal board of directors. He is chairman of Newlin Investment Company LLC, lead director of Meritor, Inc. and a director of Calgon Carbon Corporation. Previously, Newlin served as executive vice president and chief administrative officer of Dick's Sporting Goods, Inc. and chairman and chief executive officer of Buchanan Ingersoll Professional Corporation (now Buchanan Ingersoll & Rooney PC).

"With vast experience in global business management and finance, we look forward to Mr. Stranghoener's leadership and counsel as the new chairman," said Kennametal President and CEO Don Nolan. "At the same time, we are grateful for Mr. Newlin's contributions to the company over the last three decades and know that his leadership will have a lasting impact."
